

$~14 & 15.

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ CRL.A. 276/2014

GAURI

..... Appellant

Through: Mr. S.K. Rai, Advocate along with appellant in person.

versus

BSES RAJDHANI POWER LTD

..... Respondent

Through: Mr. Akhil Verma, Advocate for the respondent/BSES.

+ CRL.A. 290/2014

ASHISH

..... Appellant

Through: Mr Sanjay Sharma, Advocate along with appellant in person.

versus

THE STATE & ANR

..... Respondent

Through: Mr. Lovkesh Sawhney, APP for respondent No.1/State.
Mr. Akhil Verma, Advocate for the respondent No.2/ BSES.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIPIN SANGHI

ORDER

03.03.2015

%

The appellants Gauri & Ashish are present. They have brought Rs.5,000/- and Rs.20,000/- respectively in terms of the last order. The money has been tendered to learned counsel for BSES Rajdhani Power Ltd.

and accepted in full and final settlement of all claims of the said company.

Learned counsel for the respondent BSES Rajdhani Power Limited has no objection to the impugned judgment being set aside since the settlement has been reached.

The offence being compoundable, the impugned judgment and sentence are set aside and the appeal stands disposed of accordingly. The surety and surety bond stand discharged.

Dasti.

VIPIN SANGHI, J

MARCH 03, 2015

B.S. Rohella