ORDER
% 15.04.2015

This matter is taken up today as 14th April, 2015 was declared holiday.

The present petition has been filed by the petitioners under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No. 64/2010, under Sections 324/326/34 IPC, registered at P.S. Lodhi Colony, Delhi on the complaint of respondent No.2.

The present petition has been filed on the basis of the settlement arrived at between the parties. The terms and conditions of the settlement are mentioned as below:-

“1. It is agreed between the parties that they do not have any further grievances against each other.

2. It is agreed between the parties that they shall reside peacefully and harmoniously and they will not raise any dispute with respect of filling of water for their use.

3. It is agreed between the parties that the complainant shall cooperate for getting statements recorded for quashing of FIR in the matter filed, before the appropriate Court by the parties.

4. It is also agreed between the parties that pursuant to the above settlement reached between the parties, all the pending litigation pertaining to the present claim, shall be deemed to have been settled between the parties.

This settlement has been voluntarily arrived at between the parties with their own free will and without any force, pressure or coercion and both the parties are bound by the terms and conditions mentioned herein above.”

The settlement is duly signed by the parties. The respondent no. 2 is present in Court and he has no objection if the FIR in question be quashed subject to the condition that the petitioner shall donate one unit blood twice from today with the Red Cross Society for which the petitioner is agreeable and the present FIR is quashed.

The copy of the order be sent to the Red Cross Society. The petitioner shall approach the said society within two weeks from today for compliance of the said order.

The report in this regard shall be filed thereafter by the Red Cross Society after the expiry of the period of twelve months.
