ORDER

25.02.2015

1. It is brought to the notice of this Court by the appellant that applications under Section 254 (2) are pending before the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) in respect of certain alterations as certain arguments could not be considered at the time of disposal of the appeals which are subject matters of the Tribunal proceedings.
2. In these circumstances, the Court is of the opinion that the appellants will approach this Court in case final order of rectification is made. The learned counsel for the appellant seeks permission to withdraw the present appeals but with further liberty to approach this Court and urge all grounds including the ground urged in the present appeals, if need arises.

3. Liberty granted. It is open to the appellants to agitate their grievances in respect of the order to be made by the ITAT as well as any other grounds which are the subject matters of the present appeals.

4. The appeals are accordingly dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for.
