Crl.M.A.Nos.8734-35/2016

1. The matter was listed for September 13, 2016 which was declared a holiday and therefore is being taken up today.
2. The petition was dismissed in default on August 25, 2015. Restoration and delay in seeking restoration is prayed for.
3. Leaned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner has expired. If this be so, the question of revival of the petition does not arise.
4. The two applications are accordingly dismissed as infructuous.
