1. On the last date of hearing, learned counsel for the Decree Holder had sought time to verify as to whether the website of the Income Tax Department had reflected the amounts deducted on account of TDS deposited by the Judgment Debtor for the Assessment Year 2012-13.

2. Today, learned counsel for the Decree Holder confirms that the website of the Income Tax Department reflects the fact that the Judgment Debtor has deposited the amounts of ₹7,00,000/-, ₹3,50,000/- and ₹2,50,000/- towards the tax deducted at source, for the year ending 31.3.2012.

3. In view of the aforesaid position, nothing further survives in the present petition, which is accordingly disposed of.

4. At this stage, counsel for the Decree Holder states that he may be granted leave to file an application for directions to the Judgment Debtor to file a revised challan in respect of the tax deducted at source as on 31.3.2012, so that the same can be availed of by the Decree Holder for the Assessment Year 2016-2017.

5. As and when such an application is filed, the same shall be considered and decided in accordance with law.
