I.A. 7528/2015 (joint application u/O XXIII Rule 3 CPC)

1. The present joint application has been filed by the parties stating inter alia that they have arrived at an out of court negotiated settlement, the terms and conditions whereof have been set out in para 3 of the application. Counsels for the parties state that the suit may be decreed in accordance with the terms and conditions recorded in the present application.

2. The Court has pursued the present application. The same has been signed by the authorised representatives of the parties and their respective counsels and is duly supported by their affidavits.

3. As counsels for the parties jointly state that their clients have arrived at the aforesaid settlement of their own free will and volition and without any undue influence or coercion from any quarters, there appears no legal impediment in accepting the said settlement.

4. The compromise application is taken on record. The parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions thereof. The suit is decreed in accordance with the settlement recorded in the application, while leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
