Crl. M.A.No.894/2015 (u/S 482 Cr.P.C.)

Delay of 59 days in re-filing the accompanying petition is condoned for the reasons stated in the application.

Application is disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 226/2015

Quashing of FIR No. 233/2013, under Sections 498-A/406/506 of the IPC, registered at police station Jaitpur , Delhi is sought on the basis of mediated settlement of 16th September, 2015 (Annexure-B), arrived at Mediation Centre, Saket Courts, New Delhi.

Notice.

Mr. Karan Singh, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for respondent No.1-State accepts notice and Mr. Vipin K. Soni , Advocate, accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.2.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor for respondent –State submits that respondent No.2, present in the Court, is complainant/first-informant of the FIR in question and she has been identified to be so by her counsel as well as by SI Chander, Investigating Officer of this case.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor for State submits on instructions that the trial of this FIR case has not yet begun.

Respondent No.2, present in the Court, submits that the dispute between the parties has been amicably resolved vide aforesaid settlement and terms thereof have been fully acted upon as today, she has received the balance settled amount of ₹49,869/- by way of demand draft bearing No. ‘926667’, dated 18th December, 2014, drawn on Vijaya Bank, Service Branch, New Delhi and that divorce by mutual consent has been already granted by the family court on 6th June, 2014. Respondent No.2 affirms the contents of aforesaid settlement and of her affidavit of 31st October, 2014 supporting this petition and submits that now no dispute with petitioners survives and so, the proceedings arising out of the FIR in question be brought to an end.

In ‘Gian Singh Vs State of Punjab’ (2012) 10 SCC 303, Apex Court has recognized the need of amicable resolution of disputes in cases like the instant one, by observing as under:-

“Resolution of a dispute by way of a compromise between two warring groups, therefore, should attract the immediate and prompt attention of a court which should endeavour to give full effect to the same unless such compromise is abhorrent to lawful composition of the society or would promote savagery.

Where the High Court quashes a criminal proceeding having regard to the fact that the dispute between the offender and the victim has been settled although the offences are not compoundable, it does so as in its opinion, continuation of criminal proceedings will be an exercise in futility and justice in the case demands that the dispute between the parties is put to an end and peace is restored; securing the ends of justice being the ultimate guiding factor.”

Since the subject matter of this FIR is essentially matrimonial, which now stands mutually and amicably settled between parties, therefore, continuance of proceedings arising out of the FIR in question would be an exercise in futility.

Accordingly, this petition is allowed and FIR No. 233/2013, under Sections 498-A/406/506 of the IPC, registered at police station Jaitpur , Delhi and the proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed qua petitioners.

This petition is accordingly disposed of.
