W.P.(C) Nos.5858, 5798, 5800, 5803 & 5816 of 2015

Issue notice. Notice is accepted on behalf of the Respondents. It is submitted that the writ petition can be disposed of today.

The claim in all these proceedings by the writ petitioners is for the grant of Second Financial Upgradation in terms of the ACP Scheme promulgated by the Central Government on 09.08.1999. It is not disputed by the Respondents that the claim has to be allowed in view of the previous decision of this court in Shekhar Chand vs. Union of India & Others in W.P.(C) 4632/2015 and other connected cases decided on 11.05.2015.

Accordingly, the directions are issued to treat the writ petitions and pass appropriate orders after due verification as to the Petitioners' entitlement to the Second Financial Upgradation wherever warranted and consequently orders shall be made within four weeks. The entire process inclusive of pay fixation orders, release of arrears and fitment at the appropriate stage in grant of increments shall be completed within 12 weeks from today.

In the case of Petitioners who have retired, pension fixation orders shall also be issued and arrears of pension based upon the grant and release of financial upgradation shall also be appropriately given within the said period.

The writ petitions are allowed in the above terms.

Order dasti.
