The informant/victim has alleged that because of the fact that his younger brother had developed liaison with the sister of one Azam, bad blood had developed between Azam and his associates and the informant. On the day of the occurrence, it is alleged that when the informant was coming back home, he was accosted by four of the accused persons including the petitioner.

On the orders of one Akbar Ali, Azam fired at the informant leading to injuries at his stomach.

The other accused persons are stated to have been arrested whereafter they were granted bail.

Considering the aforesaid facts, the petitioner is directed to be released on his arrest on his furnishing bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety of like amount to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer/SHO of the concerned police station.
