JUDGMENT AND ORDER

ORAL

Date: 05-07-2016

Heard Mr. Sanjeev Ranjan, learned Counsel, appearing on behalf of the petitioner, and Mr. Dhurjati Kumar Prasad, learned Government Pleader No.7, appearing on behalf of the State-respondents.

In view of the fact that the petitioner herein is in custody in connection with criminal offences, and he could have applied for provisional bail, under Section 439 of Cr.P.C., this Court is clearly of the view that in the absence of anything showing to the contrary, the present application, made under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, seeking provisional bail is misconceived and untenable in law.

In view of the above and in the interest of justice, this application is dismissed.
