CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3      11-04-2016                      Heard Sri Ajay Kumar Thakur, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Madan Kumar, learned A.P.P. as well as Sri Bashisth Narain Mishra, learned counsel, who was assisted by Sri Brij Kishore Mishra, learned counsel for the informant.

The petitioner, who is in custody in connection with

Turkaulia P.S. Case No. 833 of 2015 registered for the offence punishable under section 365 of the Indian Penal Code, which was subsequently amended as 364(A), 302, 201, 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, has prayed for grant of bail.

It was submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that there is no accusation against the petitioner. He further submits that the son of the petitioner had made confession before the police and thereafter the petitioner and others were implicated whereas learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant opposing the prayer of bail submits that after murder the accused persons including the petitioner tried to misguide the Police and it was purported as if it was a case of kidnapping. However, subsequently after the confession of the son of the petitioner dead body was recovered from septic tank.

Learned counsel for the petitioner accepts that after investigation charge sheet has already been submitted.

In view of the facts and circumstances, particularly the fact that after investigation charge sheet has already been submitted, I do not find any ground to grant bail to the petitioner.

The petition stands dismissed.
