CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 08-04-2016 Heard Sri Sanjay Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri R.B.Roy Raman, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor.

The petitioner, who is in custody since 15.04.2014 in connection with Delha P.S.Case No. 55/14 (corresponding to Sessions Trial No.29/15/65/15 registered for the offence under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code, has prayed for grant of bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the informant claiming to be an eye witness has stated that the petitioner had inflicted one knife blow on the neck of her son. However, according to learned counsel for the petitioner, the deceased was having four injuries and, as such, he has doubted the prosecution. Learned counsel for the petitioner accepts that after framing of charge, trial has commenced.

In view of the fact that trial has already commenced, the prayer for bail stands rejected.

Since the petitioner is in custody since 2014, while rejecting the prayer for bail, it is desirable to observe that the learned trial judge may take appropriate steps, so that the case may come to its logical end without unnecessary delay. The Trial Judge may take up this case at least once in a week for early disposal of the case.
