Heard.

Petitioner was accused in Salakhua P.S.Case No.146 of 2004 and the informant and other police officials had gone to nab him but petitioner having illegal rifle in his hand managed to escape from there. Thereafter, informant and other police officials raided a hut situated adjacent to the house of the petitioner and from the aforesaid hut a mini-gun factory was unearthed and five persons were caught.

Contention on behalf of the petitioner is that the aforesaid recovery has not been made either from the conscious possession of the petitioner or from his house and as a matter of fact, petitioner has been implicated by the informant only because he could not nab the petitioner.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances as well as submission on behalf of the parties, let the above named petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of CJM, Saharsa in Salakhua P.S.Case No.146 of 2004.
