CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA MOHAN SHARMA
ORAL ORDER

3 14-07-2016 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned A.P.P for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in a case for the offences punishable under section 376/34 of the I.P.C

Allegedly, after giving assurance to marry with the informant the petitioner developed love affair with her and thereafter developed physical relationship with her resulting the informant became pregnant but now the petitioner is not ready to marry with her. It is alleged that the informant earlier was working in the house of the petitioner as house-maid and the petitioner started developing love affair with her, then his family members stopped her from working, inspite of that the petitioner developed physical relationship at the house of the informant.

Submission is of false implication and that the prosecution story appears not probable and reliable, the informant has been medically examined and she has been found aged 18-25 years, only with a view to extract money the informant has lodged this false case after much delay and as such the petitioner deserves sympathetic consideration, to which the learned A.P.P. opposes by submitting that the petitioner developed physical relationship with the informant when she was minor after giving false promise to marry with her and as such the petitioner does not deserve bail.

In the facts and circumstances as stated above, considering the allegation attributed against the petitioner, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and accordingly his such prayer stands rejected in connection with Dhamdaha P.S. Case No. 36 of 2016 pending in the court of C.J.M. Purnea.
