CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 16-09-2016

Nobody appears on behalf of the petitioner. Learned counsel for the State is present.

2. The petitioner, who claims to be the brother of the late husband of the deceased Parvati Devi, has filed the present writ application seeking retiral benefits of the deceased.

3. Learned counsel for the State submits that Parvati Devi was the wife of late Singheshwar Paswan and when she died, she did not have any children. The authorities got a representation from the petitioner, who is the brother of the husband of the deceased and another application from one Amit Kumar Amit, who claims to be the adopted son of the deceased Parvati Devi.

4. Faced with the situation, the authorities have asked for production of a Succession Certificate for making payment of retiral dues.

5. Having considered the aforesaid, this Court does not find any reason to interfere in the stand of the respondents in the particular facts and circumstances of the present case. Accordingly, the writ application stands disposed off.

6 As and when a Succession Certificate with regard to Parvati Devi is produced before the authorities, they shall act in accordance with law as per the terms of the Succession Certificate relating to payment of retiral dues of late Parvati Devi.
