CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH

ORAL ORDER

03/ 01-03-2016

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the informant is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498A of the Indian Penal Code and 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act.

The basic accusation is of torture for non-fulfillment of the dowry demand.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner admits his marriage with the informant and is ready to keep the informant as wife with full dignity and honour. Statement to that effect has been made in paragraph 8 of the petition, which reads as follows:-

“That the petitioner is the husband of the informant and ready to keep her with full honour, respect and dignity.”

Counsel for the informant submits that the informant is ready to accept the offer of the petitioner.

Both sides agree to appear before the learned court below on 10th of March, 2016 when the petitioner will take the informant to keep her as wife with full dignity and honour.

Considering the present stand of the parties, let the above named petitioner be released on provisional anticipatory bail for six months in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of twelve weeks from today, on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub-divisional Judicial Magistrate, Bikramganj, Rohtas in connection with Dinara P.S. Case No. 160 of 2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

The provisional bail of the petitioner will be confirmed within one year by the learned court below in three eventualities:- (i) on substantial restoration of the matrimonial harmony; (ii) or if the informant gets reluctant to reconcile the issue; and (iii) or if the informant fails to appear before the learned court.
