CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJENDRA KUMAR MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

3 12-02-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner is accused in connection with Tekari P.S. Case No. 111 of 2014, registered under Section 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that it would appear from the F.I.R. that the petitioner and other co-accused were seen by the informant moving behind her husband in course of carrying the bundle of wheat and, thereafter, the husband of the informant did not return, except that there is nothing against the petitioner. Moreover, petitioner is in custody since 27.05.2015, while he is an accused in Konch P.S. Case No. 80 of 2015, but he is on bail in the said case.

Having regard to the facts and the circumstances of the case, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the A.C.J.M-III at Gaya in connection with Tekari P.S. Case No. 111 of 2014. Out of two sureties, one surety must be the close relative of the petitioner, who will file an affidavit showing his relation with the petitioner and further the petitioner shall remain present on each and every date during the course of the trial in the court below. If the petitioner fails to remain present on two consecutive dates during the course of the trial without any reasonable cause being shown, the court concerned would be at liberty to take steps for cancellation of his bail bonds.
