CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V. NATH
ORAL JUDGMENT

counsel appearing for the petitioner.

After considering the submissions, the delay in filing this revision application is condoned.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has also made submissions on the merits of this revision application.

By the impugned order, the learned District Judge, Begusarai has rejected the petition filed by the petitioner for retaining the suit filed by him at Begusarai by recalling the order by which it has been transferred to the court of Sub Judge, Bakhari.

After considering the submissions and perusal of the impugned order, it is manifest that the learned District Judge has taken into notice that the parties are residents of village-Nawkothe which falls within the jurisdiction of Bakhari court. It has also been observed in the impugned order that there is less pendency of cases before the Bakhari court and therefore the chance of early disposal of this suit is fair before that court in comparison to the court at Begusarai where large number of cases are pending for disposal.

The aforesaid reasons assigned in the impugned order does not appear to be arbitrary or perverse in any manner. This Court, therefore, does not find any error of jurisdiction or illegality committed by the learned court below.

This revision application is, accordingly, dismissed with observation that the suit filed by the plaintiff would be disposed of at the earliest in view of the similar observation made in the impugned order.
