CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 19-01-2016 Heard Sri Ajay Thakur, learned counsel, who was assisted by Mr. Pravin Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Madan Kumar, learned A.P.P.

The petitioner who is in custody in connection with Gangabridge P.S. Case No. 75 of 2015 registered for the offence punishable under Section 307 and other allied Sections of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act has prayed for grant of bail.

Sri Thakur, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in the F.I.R. itself it has been alleged that about 15 accused persons arrived and in the said occurrence allegation is made for opening only one fire. He further submits that in the case F.I.R. was lodged at belated stage. Besides this, prior to lodging of the present case one F.I.R. was lodged from the petitioner's side against the informant's side. Accordingly, it has been argued that petitioner has falsely been implicated, whereas the learned A.P.P. opposing the prayer for bail submits that in the case there is specific accusation against the petitioner regarding firing which hit on the chest of the father of the informant.

Keeping in view the fact that petitioner is the main assailant, there is no reason to grant bail to the petitioner.

The petition stands dismissed.
