ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 30-03-2016

Nobody appears either on behalf of the petitioner or the opposite party no. 2. However, learned A.P.P. for the State is present.

The Court had earlier granted provisional bail to the petitioner on 13.11.2014 in view of the stand taken that he is ready to keep the opposite party no. 2, along with the child, with full dignity, honour and security. Thereafter, it was brought to the notice of the Court that the parties were living together. To ascertain the same, the Court had directed the Court below to record the statement of the opposite party no. 2 and send a report to the Court. The same has been sent which discloses that the opposite party no. 2 is living with her husband since 6th

December, 2014.

In view of the aforesaid, the provisional bail granted to the petitioner stands confirmed subject to the condition that he shall file an undertaking before the Court below that he shall keep the opposite party no. 2 along with the child with him with full dignity, honour and security and shall also take care of their needs. He shall further give undertaking that the opposite party no. 2 shall be allowed to talk to and meet her relatives. In the event there is any violation of the undertaking or the opposite party no. 2 is harassed either by the petitioner or his family members, she shall be at liberty to file a petition before the Court below. If such a petition is filed, the Court, after hearing the parties, shall pass appropriate orders including cancellation of the bail bonds of the petitioner.

The application stands disposed off in the aforementioned terms.
