informant that informant is ready to resume the conjugal life and denies the allegation of misbehaving with the family members of the petitioner.

In the alternative, petitioner is ready to make payment of Rs. 6000/- to the informant from September, 2016, by depositing the same in the bank account of the informant by second week of every succeeding month.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the informant that the offer is acceptable to the informant who undertakes to submit her bank account number by submitting the same on affidavit before learned Court below within a period of three weeks.

Considering the present stand of the petitioner and to save the informant from vagrancy and destitution with lurking hope that the issue will be reconciled between the parties in future , let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of 12 weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Barh in connection with Barh P.S. Case No. 362 of 2015.

The above payment will be subject to any order being passed in matrimonial or maintenance proceeding.

Three consecutive defaults in making payment will give liberty to the informant to file appropriate application for cancellation of bail of the petitioner.

The present order, in no way will preclude the parties to resolve the issue otherwise.
