The prosecution case, as lodged by the informant,

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for is evident from paragraph 3 of this application and because he was an accomplice to the other co-accused Md. Masrum Alam @ Masrur Alam he has been implicated in the aforesaid case. He further submits that on the confessional statement of the co-accused his name has surfaced.

From the confessional statement of the co-accused (paragraph 5 of the case diary), it is evident that the petitioner was a neighbour of the informant and an accomplice of the co-accused, who had accompanied the co-accused and identified the petitioner. The witnesses in paragraph 6 and 14 of the case diary have also supported the case of the prosecution. From the case diary, it appears that the informant identified the petitioner and was an accomplice to the other co-accused.

Under such circumstances, prayer for anticipatory bail made on behalf of the petitioner in connection with Pirbahore P.S. Case No. 128/15, pending in the court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Patna is rejected.
