CORAM: HONOURABLE THE ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE and
HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI
SHARAN SINGH

ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE THE ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE)

3 19-01-2016 Heard Mr. Brajesh Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, and Mr. Ashok Kumar Chaudhary, learned AAG-13, appearing for the respondents.

Having perused the pleadings in the writ petition, which has been filed in the nature of PIL, under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and upon hearing learned counsel for the parties concerned, we are of the view that until the time the accusations, which have been made by the petitioner against the private respondents are, upon investigation, found to be true, it would be inappropriate for us to entertain this PIL inasmuch as any interference, at this stage, is likely to influence the process of investigation would be highly improper.

We, therefore, in the interest of justice, dispose of this PIL with directions to the Superintendent of Police, Saharsa, to ensure effective, impartial and expeditious investigation into the allegations made into Bihra P.S. Case No. 172 of 2014, dated 27.10.2014.

With the observations and directions, this writ application shall stand disposed of.
