CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 02-08-2016

Heard Sri Rana Ishwar Chandra, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Anant Kumar, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor.

The sole petitioner has approached this Court, invoking its inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, with a prayer to quash an order dated 24.09.2013 passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Buxar in Buxar (Industrial) P.S. Case No.30/2012, G.R. No.652
/2012, Tr. No.2718/2012. By the said order, the learned Magistrate has rejected the petition for discharge filed on behalf of the petitioner under Section 239 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

It was submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. There was no material in the case diary, even then the petitioner was forwarded as accused and even the discharge petition was not considered properly. He submits that some of the witnesses, who have supported the prosecution case, are interested witnesses. Accordingly, he has made a prayer for quashing the impugned order.

Besides hearing learned counsel for the parties, I have also perused the materials on record including the impugned order. After going through the impugned order, the Court is satisfied that the learned Magistrate has committed no error in passing the order. The petition stands dismissed.
