CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V. NATH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 19-04-2016

Heard Mr. Sanjay Kumar, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent nos. 1, 3, 5 and 6.

No body has appeared today on behalf of the petitioner.

The matter has been placed under the heading 'For Orders' today as the parties have been heard on 12.04.2016.

Mr. Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent nos. 1, 3, 5 and 6 has submitted that the Succession Case No. 36 of 2011 has now been disposed of and the succession certificate has been issued on 08.01.2016 by the court of Sub-Judge-

1, Saran. Learned counsel has also produced photocopy of the said succession certificate for perusal before this court. There is no denial of this fact on behalf of the petitioner. The learned counsel has also relied on the order passed by this Court in C.W.J.C No. 21712 of 2012 and C.W.J.C No. 2175 of 2012 in order to persuade this Court that there is no substance in the case as well as the relief prayed by the petitioner in this application.

After considering the aforesaid facts and the materials produced on behalf of the respondents showing that the succession case no. 36 of 2011 in which the impugned order has already been disposed of, this writ application is held to have become infructuous and is, accordingly, dismissed as such.
