ORAL ORDER

3      26-10-2016      Despite repeated calls no one appears on behalf of the petitioner to press the writ application. Learned counsel for the State and the Bihar Public Service Commission are present.

It is pointed out by the respondents that the writ application was filed by way of class action. The petitioner had not taken the exam.

Be that as it may, as none has appeared to press the writ application, the same is dismissed for want of prosecution.
