CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SAMARENDRA PRATAP SINGH

ORAL ORDER

5 16-03-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing for the State.

Petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case under section
302/328/34 of Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner submits that he is innocent. The allegation is that the petitioner along with other named accused persons came to the house of the deceased and took him away on the pretext of convening panchayat. The deceased did not come back home till 12 O'clock. On enquiry, the informant learnt that the accused persons tortured her husband and demanded a sum of Rs.21,000/- as fine. She further came to learn that her husband is lying at Malinagar Baicha in injured condition.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the deceased did not sustain any anti-mortem injury. He has been implicated in this case due to village politics.

In view of nature of allegations, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is refused with direction to surrender and seek regular bail which would be disposed of on its own merit without prejudice, preferably on the same day.

With the aforesaid observation, the anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner is hereby dismissed.
