CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 19-05-2016 Heard Smt. Archana Sinha, learned counsel for the petitioner.

The sole petitioner, apprehending her arrest in connection with Nagar P.S. Case No. 798 of 2015 registered for the offence under section 420, 467, 468, 471 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, has prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in the F.I.R. without any basis and material petitioner has been made accused. She submits that though it was alleged that on the basis of forged document petitioner got employment, fact remains that certificates are genuine. Learned counsel for the petitioner tried to persuade the court to peruse Annexure – 2 and 3. I have perused the material available on record including the F.I.R. as well as the impugned order.

I do not find any ground to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail.

The petition stands dismissed.

If the petitioner appears before the court below and makes a prayer for grant of regular bail within a period of six weeks from today this court expects that the learned court below without being prejudiced with this order may examine the same on its own merit and pass appropriate order in accordance with law preferably on the same day.
