CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V. NATH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 24-10-2016

Heard Mr. Jitendra Prasad Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner.

After some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner has confined his prayer for direction to the learned court below for disposal of the Miscellaneous Appeal No. 2 of 1997 which has been pending even after the direction of this Court in the order dated 03.05.2002 passed in C.R. No. 598 of 2001.

After considering the submissions, it appears that the Miscellaneous Appeal No. 2 of 1997 has been filed by the plaintiff of the suit against the order rejecting the prayer for injunction. It is surprising to this Court as to why the said appeal has remained pending for such a long time as the matter relates to the year 1997 and such long pendency will obviously frustrate the very purpose of the appeal. It is also apparent that said direction for expeditious disposal of the appeal has already been issued by this Court earlier on 03.05.2002.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, this application is disposed of with a direction to the learned court below to dispose of the appeal within a period of three months from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order and submit a report to this Court.
