ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 20-08-2016

Since the request for commutation of pension of the petitioner for one reason for the other could not be processed within one year of his retirement, that could be the reason why commutation has not been done till date. The Court is not willing to investigate the reasons or find the fault for not authorizing commutation of the petitioner. But since the petitioner has retired on 30.6.2012, let the petitioner initiate a fresh process through the office of the Consolidation Officer for which even a medial will be required to be held and forward the same to the office of the Accountant General. No sooner the same is received, office of the Accountant General will do the needful within a reasonable time frame as enough time has already been lost since the petitioner has superannuated.

Writ is disposed of with the above direction.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
