CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 29-03-2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondents.

2. The present writ application has been filed for quashing the demand order for payment of Rs. 1,00,000/- by 28.02.2011 failing which a certificate proceeding would be initiated; and for connected reliefs.

3. In course of argument, learned counsel for the petitioner was unable to make any submission whatsoever to support the challenge against the demand for payment of Rs. 1,00,000/-. His only contention was that he was sent to jail after being arrested in the month of October, 2007 and had been forced to pay a sum of Rs.

23,000/-.

4. Learned counsel for the respondents, on the other hand, submits that the impugned letter requiring the petitioner to make payment of Rs. 1,00,000/- by 28.02.2011 was not in the nature of demand notice at all, rather it was an invitation to the petitioner to make payment of the said amount if he wished to avail the ongoing scheme for waiver of interest which was in operation till 31.3.2011.

5. Having regard to the stand of the parties, this Court finds the writ petition to be devoid of any merit and the same is accordingly dismissed.
