ORAL ORDER

2 05-10-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional P.P.

For an occurrence allegedly having been committed on 22.12.2014, a complaint petition was filed on 03.01.2015 which was sent to the local police for registration and investigation and on the basis thereof, the instant case has been registered. As per narration of the complaint, it is evident that the complainant/informant who happens to be the mother of the deceased Sunita Devi who was married with Subhash Sah, the brother of the petitioner that after marriage while she was staying at her Sasural, she was subjected to torture and cruelty for procurement of demand of dowry and lastly, she was ousted therefrom. However, on 21.09.2014, her husband came to her place where executed an undertaking and took away the deceased Sunita Devi and then thereafter, as has been alleged, on 23.12.2014, she was done to death and her dead body was disposed of.

From the written report itself, it is evident that no date of marriage has been given nor any sort of complicity relating to the petitioner. Moreover, there happens to be specific disclosure on 21.09.2014, the husband of the deceased had come to her place, gave an undertaking and took away Sunita Devi and then, thereafter, she was murdered.

That being so, the petitioner, Bachcha Sah is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, East Champaran at Motihari, in connection with Pipra P.S. Case No. 18 of 2015.
