CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. NILU AGRAWAL
ORAL ORDER

2 16-12-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

Petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 20.09.2016 in connection with Jakkanpur P. S. Case No. 241 of 2016 registered for the offence punishable under Sections 354 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code..

The prosecution case as lodged by the informant is that the petitioner along with other boys used to pass filth comments upon his daughter, aged about 15 years, while she went to attend the school. The informant followed his daughter to school and caught hold the petitioner, who was passing filthy comments and he named the other co-accused.

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that he is innocent has no criminal history and he is the sole bread winner of the family. He further submits that Section 354 of the Indian Penal Code is not made out against him and that charge sheet has already been submitted, hence there is no chance of tampering with the prosecution evidence.

However, learned A.P.P. for the State submits that the petitioner is named in the F.I.R., hence, opposes the prayer for bail.

Be that as it may, considering the facts and circumstances and submission of the parties, since charge sheet has already been submitted, let the petitioner, above named, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rs. ten thousand only) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Patna in connection with Jakkanpur P. S. Case No. 241 of 2016 with a condition that one of the bailors would be a close relative of the petitioner and the other bailor would have sufficient immovable property within the jurisdiction of the concerned police station/ Court .
