CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

5. 13-12-2016 Heard Sri Nilesh Kumar, learned counsel for petitioners and Sri S.N.Shukla, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor.

Two petitioners, who are mother-in-law and brother-in-law (Dewar) of the informant, have prayed for grant of anticipatory bail in Phulwarisharif (Janipur) P.S. Case No. 319 of 2016 registered for offence under Section 498(A) of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3 & 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961.

Earlier, the case was adjourned to enable learned counsel for petitioners to get status of the husband of the informant. For the same purpose, it was adjourned twice and today it was informed that husband of the informant has filed an anticipatory bail application, but learned counsel for petitioners is not in a position to provide the number of anticipatory bail petition. He submits that only token number has been provided.

After going through the F.I.R. and materials on record, I do not find any ground to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail. However, it is made clear that if within a period of six weeks from today, petitioners appear before the court below and make a prayer for regular bail, the learned court below, without being prejudiced with this order, may examine the same and pass appropriate order in accordance with law, preferably on the same date.

The petition stands disposed of.

(Rakesh Kumar, J.)
