CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 14-12-2016 Heard Sri Ravindra Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioners, Smt. Asha Devi, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor and Sri Digvijay Kumar Ojha, learned counsel, who has appeared on behalf of the complainant/Opp.Party no.2.

Two petitioners, who are father-in-law and mother-in-law respectively of the complainant, have approached this Court invoking its inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure with a prayer to quash an order dated 03.04.2013 passed in Complaint Case No.1703 C/2012. By the said order, the learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate has taken cognizance of offence under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3/ 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

At the very outset, Sri Digvijay Kumar Ojha, learned counsel for the complainant/Opp.Party no.2 submits that during pendency of this petition, the dispute in between the parties has already been settled and now the complainant is peacefully residing with her husband, who is none else but son of the petitioners.

In view of facts and circumstances, there is no reason to keep the matter pending. The petition stands disposed of with observation that if any petition for compromise is filed before the court below within six weeks from today or such petition is pending before the learned court below, the learned court below may pass appropriate order in accordance with law preferably within a period of six weeks thereafter.
