Petitioner is not named in the first information report and the name of petitioner came in this case in the supervision note of the Dy.S.P., who has mentioned in the report that father of the deceased disclosed the name of petitioner in his written report but learned counsel for the petitioner drew my attention to Para - 16 of the case diary in which I.O. has written the written report of the father of the deceased and it is obvious from perusal of the same that the aforesaid report does not contain the name of petitioner.
