CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT GUPTA

and

HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT GUPTA)

Date: 22-09-2016

The appellant is the son from the first wife of the deceased who was a government servant. The deceased government servant married thrice during his lifetime and there are disputes with regard to inheritance between his wives and their children.

The learned Single Judge has rightly observed that the parties are free to fight the battle in a Civil Court for declaration in their favour.

Learned counsel for the appellant points out that certain legal heirs have applied for succession certificate.

Be as it may, it is open to the appellant to avail such remedy as is available to him, but no direction can be issued that the appellant should invoke any particular line of action.

We do not find any error in the order passed by the learned Single Bench. Accordingly, the present Letters Patent Appeal is dismissed.
