CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 25-10-2016 Heard Sri Anirudh Kumar Sinha, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Ram Anurag Singh, learned Additional Public Prosecutor.

The sole petitioner, the husband of the deceased has prayed for grant of bail in Desari P.S. Case No. 185 of 2015 registered for the offence under Section 304(B)/201/ 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3 / 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

It was submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that in the funeral informant and other family members of the deceased participated and subsequently the present F.I.R. was lodged, however learned Additional Public Prosecutor, by way of referring to the facts disclosed in the case diary which was earlier received in this case, submits that there is sufficient material to show that petitioner being husband was directly involved in the case. Death of the deceased had occurred due to burn injury . It is evident that dead body was not sent for post mortem examination.

Considering the facts and circumstances particularly the fact that petitioner was the husband, I am not inclined to extend the privilege of bail.

The petition stands dismissed.
