CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JYOTI SARAN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 23-08-2016

Heard Mr. Ashok Kumar Choudhary, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, Mr. Chandra Mohan Singh, learned counsel appearing for the Bihar Agricultural University and Mr. Vishwambhar

Prasad, learned Assisting Counsel to Additional Advocate General No.5 for the State.

Although this writ petition is filed questioning the order of termination of the petitioner from the post of ‘Subject Matter Specialist’ on grounds that he did not possess the eligibility qualification fixed in the advertisement, a copy of which is present at Annexure-1 which, inter alia, requires the petitioner to pass National Eligibility Test and which qualification has admittedly not been obtained by the petitioner but when this matter was taken up for consideration, learned counsel for the parties were in agreement that the issue raised in this writ petition stands concluded in a judgment and order of this Court passed in CWJC No.5768 of 2014 (Rakesh Kumar Prasad vs. Bihar Agricultural University) and analogous cases when a Bench of this Court in examination of the rival contentions has not found the issues raised by the appointee worthy of indulgence.

The batch of writ petitions were dismissed and the same consequence would follow in the present writ petition as well, which is accordingly dismissed.

Let the copy of the judgment be maintained on the record of the proceedings.
