Petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since registered for the offence punishable under Sections 395 and 397 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case is that while the informant who is a sales man was returning home on his cousin's motorcycle two persons overtook him and on another motorcycle three other persons also came there and snatched his motorcycle and bag

It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that he is innocent and has no criminal history and has falsely been implicated on the confessional statement of the other co-accused Bablu Kumar Dubey and Anil Kumar Kushwaha which has no evidentiary value in the eyes of law. It has further been submitted that nothing has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner and no T.I. Parade has been done so far. He submits that he is a businessman doing business and the transactions in the bank account is his own savings and is not stolen money.

However, learned A.P.P. for the State submits that during investigation the name of the petitioner surfaced and hence, opposes the prayer for bail.

Be that as it may, considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioner has no criminal history, let the petitioner, above named, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rs. Ten thousand only) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate 1st Bettiah, West Champaran in connection with Lauriya P.S.
