CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

2 18-01-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State as well as learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341/323/324/307/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there being no repetition on close, the petitioner may be extended the interim benefit of pre-arrest.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant however, submits that the petitioner with deliberate intention has hit the informant on the eye with a Frasa resulting in a sharp-cut in his eye which has resulted in loss of vision. The injury report which has been produced is indicative of the fact that there is a grievous injury in eye of the informant.

In view of the aforementioned facts and circumstances and the nature of injury, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner in connection with Khanpur P.S. Case No. 94 of 2015 and his prayer for bail stands rejected.

The Court below is directed to consider the case on its own merit without being prejudiced by the present order.
