CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE BIRENDRA PRASAD VERMA
ORAL ORDER

13 26-02-2016

The present matter arises out of a mutation proceeding.

The claim of mutation raised on behalf of the petitioner with respect to the lands in question, fully detailed in paragraph-1 of the writ petition itself, was rejected by the original authority by order dated 14.08.2001 (Annexure-3). The appeal and revision preferred on behalf of the petitioner against the order passed by the original authority have been dismissed by the impugned appellate order dated 27.11.2003 (Annexure-5) and the revisional order dated 10.08.2005 (Annexure-7). Apparently, the claim of mutation raised on behalf of the petitioner with respect to the lands in question have been rejected by all the three statutory authorities by recording concurrent finding of facts.

In above view of the matter, this Court does not find any good ground to interfere with the order impugned. The writ petition seems to be completely misconceived and is, accordingly, dismissed.

However, the petitioner, if so advised, shall be at liberty to approach the civil court of competent jurisdiction for getting his right and title declared over the lands in question.
