CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2. 27-07-2016 At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that one typographical error has occurred in paragraph – 1 of the petition. Instead of mentioning Section 302, it has incorrectly been typed as 307. He makes a prayer for making correction.

The prayer is allowed. It may be done in course of the day.

Heard Sri Swapnil Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Mukeshwar Dayal, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor.

The petitioner, who is one of the named accused in Mojahidpur (Babbargunj) P.S. Case No. 44 of 2016 registered for the offence under Sections 147, 148, 149, 448, 341, 504, 323, 324

& 307 of the Indian Penal Code and subsequently, Section 302 of I.P.C. was added, has prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is cousin of the deceased and at the time of occurrence, he was not in the village and on the ground of alibi, a prayer has been made for grant of anticipatory bail, whereas, in the F.I.R., there is specific statement that petitioner has also participated in the occurrence, in which two sons of the informant received serious injury and subsequently, one injured died.

The petition stands dismissed.
