CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 23-08-2016

Heard counsel for the petitioner and counsel for the State.

The impugned order is order passed by the appellate authority contained in Annexure- 6.

There are primarily two grounds on which claim of the petitioner for appointment as an Aanganbari Sevika has been negated. One, that her father was a Panchayat Teacher and drawing more than Rs.6000/- of remuneration from the State and the other aspect that she was selected and placed at serial 2 of merit position even though she did not participate in the Aam Sabha. Obviously, the Panchayat had manipulated things for the reasons best known to them by showing participation or selection of a candidate, who did not even appear and participate.

With these two findings and keeping in mind that these engagements are on contractual basis and not permanent appointment under the State, the order is not required to be interfered with.

Writ is dismissed.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
