CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KISHORE KUMAR MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

3 03-10-2016 The order under challenge is the offshoot of Land Dispute Case No. 58 of 2013-14. The private respondent filed a proceeding before the D.C.L.R. against the writ petitioner vide Land Dispute Case No. 58/2013-14. The same was decided in favour of the private respondent. Aggrieved thereby, an appeal was preferred by the petitioner vide Appeal No. 18/2014. During the pendency thereof, an order was passed by the D.C.L.R., the legality whereof is challenged in the present writ petition.

The Court heard the matter on 12.03.2014.

Today, the Counsel for the private respondent informs the Court that the pending appeal has now been decided finally by the appellate authority in favour of the appellant (petitioner) against which respondent no. 8 had filed an application before the Bihar Land Tribunal, Patna which is pending consideration. On the basis of aforesaid, it has rightly been contended that the application prima facie has become infructuous which seems the reason for not appearing the petitioner to press the case.

The application is dismissed.
