CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 23-09-2016 Heard Sri Nand Kishore Prasad No. II, learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Additional Public Prosecutor.

Three petitioners, who are mother -in -law, brother of husband of the deceased and close relative, have approached this court with a prayer to grant bail in Nagarnousa P.S. Case No. 184 of 2015 , registered for the offence under Section 304(B)/ 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3 of the Dowry Prohibition Act in the event of their arrest or surrender.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the daughter of the informant died due to burning since while she was cooking she was caught with the fire and died. It has been argued by learned counsel for the petitioners that during investigation all the witnesses have said that at the time of occurrence in the house there were only husband and wife and petitioners were not there. On aforesaid grounds a prayer has been made to grant privilege of anticipatory bail.

However, considering the allegation made in the F.I.R. and the fact that marriage of daughter of the informant was solemnized in the year 2015 and in the same year in December 2015 she was burnt to death, there is no reason to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail.

The petition stands dismissed.
