MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

3 06-09-2016

Heard both sides.

The petitioners are the Gotani, Bhaisur and Sasur (father-in-law) of the deceased respectively and are facing prosecution under Sections 304-B, 201/34 of the IPC vide Raxaul
P.S. case no. 290 of 2015

The allegation, in nutshell, is that the victim was married to the son of the petitioner no.3 and within 07 years of her marriage, she was done to death in the mysterious circumstance while staying at 'sasural'. There is also allegation that in-laws demanded dowry and on account of non fulfillment thereof, cruelty was perpetrated on her.

Contention of the petitioners is that the victim was given medical assistance and admitted to a hospital where she ultimately died. The petitioners are living separately. The death of the deceased was informed to the informant. The petitioners deserve anticipatory bail.

Learned APP opposed the prayer.

Considering the seriousness of the allegations and the fact that they are named in the First Information Report and the allegations carry presumption of guilt, I am not persuaded to extend them the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Rejected.
