Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the complainant is apprehending arrest in a complaint case wherein process has been directed to be issued after cognizance being taken for the offences punishable under Sections 498A of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

Basic accusation is of torture for non-fulfillment of dowry demand.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner admits his marriage with the complainant and he is ready to keep the complainant as wife with full dignity and honour. A statement to that effect has been made in para 10 of the petition which reads as follows:-

"That the petitioner is always ready to keep her with full dignity."

It appears from the order dated 24.08.2016 that earlier the informant was not ready to accept the offer of the petitioner due to past conduct of the petitioner, hence, the matter was adjourned on joint prayer of the parties to make an effort to resolve the issue for today.

Learned counsel for the complainant submits that now the complainant is ready to accept the offer of the petitioner.

Both sides agree to appear before the learned court below on 8th of November, 2016 when the petitioner will take the informant to keep her as wife with full dignity and honour.

Considering the present stand of the parties, let the above named petitioner be released on provisional anticipatory bail for six months in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of twelve weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of ₹10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned CJM, Gaya, in connection with Complaint Case No.360/2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

The provisional bail of the petitioner will be confirmed by learned court below in three eventualities (i) if the matrimonial harmony is substantially restored (ii) if the complainant fails to appear before the learned court below or (iii) if the complainant gets reluctant to reconcile the issue.
