MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

4 12-04-2016

Heard both sides.

Mr. Nath AAG-3 for the State has raised an objection about the maintainability of the application. It is stated that the writ petition as filed is premature as no final order prejudicial to the petitioner was passed. Mr. Sharma for the petitioner, on the other hand, states that in absence of any instruction from the client he is unable to press the application.

The application is dismissed as not pressed.
