CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR
JHA
ORAL ORDER

4 17-11-2016 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Rahui P.S. Case
No. 258/2015, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304B, 201 of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant alleged that his daughter Gajari Devi @ Kumkum Devi was married to the petitioner four years ago. His daughter gave birth to two children, but the husband (petitioner) of his daughter was torturing her due to non-fulfillment of demand of dowry. On 22.07.2015 son-in-law (petitioner) of the informant informed him that his daughter fled away with someone else and on the next day, dead-body of a female aged about 25 years was found. The informant and other family members identified the dead-body as Gajari Devi @ Kumkum Devi. It is further alleged that the petitioner killed his daughter for non-fulfillment of demand of dowry.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that post-mortem was held upon the dead-body of the deceased. The police after investigation submitted charge-sheet under Section 304B, but clueless. Learned court below took cognizance under Section 306, 304B and other sections of the Indian Penal Code, but it appears that the informant made specific allegation against the petitioner husband of the deceased that the petitioner was subjecting his wife to physical and mental torture.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner above-named on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
